Privacy Notice

Your trust is very important to us. This means the BBC is committed to protecting the privacy and security of your/your child's personal data. It is important that you read this notice so that you are aware of how and why we are using such information. This privacy notice describes how we collect and use personal data about you and your child during and after your relationship with us, in accordance with data protection law. You can find more about your information and privacy at:

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/cbbc/findoutmore/bp-blue-peter-purple-badge-privacy-notice>

What will BBC collect and how will we use it?

The BBC will collect and process the following personal data about you/your child submitting your application including your child's name, age, date of birth, contact information, your address and review or submission. //The BBC is the "data controller" of your personal data. This means that the BBC decides what your personal data is used for, and the ways in which it is processed. For the avoidance of doubt, your personal data will be collected and processed solely for the purposes set out in this privacy notice. As the data controller, the BBC has the responsibility to comply, and to demonstrate compliance with, data protection law.

Retaining your data

We hope to use your child's creation/submission on a Blue Peter show, but we can't guarantee it. Postal - If your child's badge application is successful, we'll retain your submission/creation for 12 weeks. Uploader - If your child's badge application is successful, we'll retain your submission for 12 months. The BBC will retain your child's personal data for the purpose of the Badge Card system until they are 16 and a half years old. If your child's submission/image is used for broadcast, it will be retained within the broadcast and archived indefinitely by the BBC in the public interest.

Your rights and more information

You have rights under data protection law. You can request a copy of the personal data BBC stores about you. You have the right to ask for the personal data we collect about you to be deleted however there are limitations and exceptions to this right which may entitle the BBC to refuse your request. In certain circumstances, you have the right to restrict the processing of your personal data or to object to the processing of your personal data. You have the right to ask that we transfer the personal data to you or to another organisation, in certain circumstances. You can contact our Data Protection Officer if you have questions or wish to find out more details about your rights, please visit the BBC's Privacy and Cookies Policy at <http://www.bbc.co.uk/privacy>. If you have a concern about the way the BBC has handled your personal data,

TO EARN YOUR PURPLE FAN CLUB BADGE, YOU MUST REVIEW A BLUE PETER SHOW AND THE WEBSITE. FILL IN THE QUESTIONS BELOW TO START EARNING YOUR BADGE!

Tell us about an episode of Blue Peter you have watched. What did you like? What didn't you like? What moments would you tell your friends about? What would you do differently?

[Empty response box for the first question]

It's the Blue Peter Fan Club takeover, and we'd love to hear your ideas for the show! It could be a make, a challenge, a competition, or maybe you know a brilliant place we could visit. No idea is a bad idea – think big and let us know!

[Empty response box for the second question]

Is there anyone or anything you would like to see on the show? What/who is it and what would you like to see them do?

[Empty response box for the third question]

If you were invited to be a guest on Blue Peter, what would you do and why?

[Empty response box for the fourth question]

Tell us what you think about the Blue Peter website. What did you enjoy about it? What would you change? Is there anything you would like more of or less of?

[Empty response box for the fifth question]

If you were in charge of the Blue Peter Fan Club for the day, what video/quiz/page would you make? We'd love to hear your ideas!
