Remember to ask a grown-up for help

1

Print out your party invite, then carefully cut around out using your scissors.

2

Fold in the red sides using the dotted lines as markers where to fold.

3

Fold up the dotty bottom triangle again using the dotted lines as markers where to fold.

4

Carefully glue the overlap of the dotty bottom triangle to the red side ones, sticking them together.

5

Cut out invite and place it in the envelope you've made.
